

Claudia Sergent
Elder Abuse Program Coordinator, Illinois Department on Aging

Claudia graduated from the University of Illinois at Springfield, School of Social Work, in 2006. While at UIS she completed an internship at Senior Services of Central Illinois, working with various programs including: Senior Transportation, Nutrition Program, Elder Abuse and Neglect Program, and Elder Assistant Services. Claudia was later hired as an elder abuse case worker for Senior Services. During that time she devoted her attention to advocating for many vulnerable clients. She currently works as an Elder Abuse Program Coordinator for the Illinois Department on Aging, and continues to be a strong supporter for the senior population.
