

CAEPV
HopeLine® from Verizon
Webinar Series
HopeLine
from Verizon

Jeremy Bruce
Manager, Employee Relations
Verizon Wireless

Jeremy Bruce is manager of employee relations at Verizon Wireless, He is responsible for the management of the EAP plan, Backup Care plan, Domestic Violence Awareness Training program and the company's severance plan. Additionally Jeremy supports headquarter operations with escalated human resources issues.

Previously, Jeremy served as associate director of health and welfare benefits and was responsible for managing the medical, prescription drug, dental, FSA and life insurance plans for the company. Additionally, he oversaw the vendor relationship with their third-party benefits administrator.

Prior to joining Verizon Wireless, Jeremy held numerous leadership positions at Paine Webber and Bear Stearns where he primarily focused his efforts on benefit plan design and administration.

Jeremy has a B.S. in business administration with an emphasis on human resources from Ramapo College.