

Deputy Chief Mike Sullivan, Investigations Division Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan's Office

Deputy Chief Sullivan is a thirty-year veteran of law enforcement and holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law Enforcement Administration from Western Illinois University. He currently is assigned as the Deputy Chief of the Investigations Division for the Illinois Attorney General's Office and the ICAC Task Force Commander.

Deputy Chief Sullivan served as a member of State and Federal Narcotic Tasks Forces, working in an undercover capacity. Deputy Chief Sullivan was a member of the DuPage County Illinois Major Crimes Task Force and was responsible for the data entry and leads collection for major cases involving the Task Force. He is a member of the ICAC Advisory Board, and the Co-Chair of the ICAC Emerging Technology Group.

Deputy Chief Sullivan has been a member of the teaching faculty at North East Multi-Regional Training, The College of DuPage, The Suburban Law Enforcement Academy, and for the Fox Valley Technical College/OJJDP. Deputy Chief Sullivan has also been a guest lecturer for Assistant United States Attorneys at the Department Of Justice, Office of Legal Education Training Center in Columbia South Carolina, Governors State University, Prairie State College and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Glyco Georgia. Deputy Chief Sullivan is the author of two books, Safety Monitor and Online Predators, which focus on the use of computers to victimize children.

Deputy Chief Sullivan's investigative techniques have resulted in the arrest and prosecution of numerous predators of children. As the task force commander of the Internet Crimes against Children task force he has created training classes for the investigation of child exploitation and delivered that training to local, state and federal law enforcement officers and prosecutors. He is the co-creator of the SAFEKIDS program in conjunction with the Microsoft Corporation, which is a course of instruction for children from the 4th to 5th grade on the dangers of the Internet. The program uses a workbook, lecture and a fully narrated slide presentation to give children the skills to deal with predators on the Internet. In the creation of the slide presentation nationally known news reporters from ABC and NBC News loaned their voices to the characters in the presentation. Deputy Chief Sullivan has received numerous awards for his work including the Medal of Valor, the Meritorious Service Medal, and The Illinois Bar Association's Law Enforcement Official of the Year.
