

Sarah Migas, MSW
Internet Safety Specialist, Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan's Office

Sarah Migas obtained her MSW in 2007 from Dominican University. She is a fourteen-year veteran of the field of social work and also taught in the Chicago Public School System. She is currently assigned as the Internet Safety Specialist for the Illinois Attorney General's Office. Additionally, Ms. Migas is an adjunct professor in the Graduate School of Social Work at Dominican University. Ms. Migas has a long history of working as an educator and social worker on behalf of children both locally and globally. Ms. Migas has spent time in diverse roles, in varied settings working on ensuring the welfare of children. That work has included direct service as a Child Advocate in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps in Fairbanks, Alaska, as a Treatment Counselor in a residential facility for children in Portland, Oregon, and as a Child Welfare Specialist at Catholic Charities in Chicago, Illinois.