

Sharon Klingman
Crisis Interventionist, McLean County Children's Advocacy Center

Sharon Klingman is a licensed clinical professional counselor and certified addictions counselor who has practiced therapy for almost 30 years. She holds a master's degree in counseling psychology from Illinois State University. In addition to practicing individual, family and group therapy, Sharon has worked as both an inpatient and outpatient counselor in Chemical Dependence Programs and was instrumental in the development of the first outpatient mental health treatment program at BroMenn Regional medical Center in Normal, IL. In 1999 she was appointed the first Clinical Coordinator of the Illinois Institute of Addiction Recovery when the site at BroMenn Regional Medical Center opened. Sharon currently serves as the crisis intervention counselor at the McLean County Children's Advocacy Center where she treats children and families who have been victims of sexual abuse. She also works at Twin Cities Behavioral Health as an outpatient therapist specializing in parenting and adolescent issues as well as substance abuse and dependence.
